Hardback, white satin cloth edition, gilt stamped title and further stamped decoration, 325 x 270mm, with English title bellyband, acetate jacket and cardboard slipcase, colour photographs throughout depicting Mao's mausoleum and its construction, Chinese language. Published by China Architecture and Building Press and National State Infrastructure Commission Institute of Construction Science, 1978.

"This book further memorializes Mao, while also proudly documenting the tremendous achievement of the hall's construction by the publisher of this book, China Architecture and Building Press. The building project involved hundreds of thousands of conscripted "volunteers" who completed the massive edifice in only six months. The book's title appears in English on a bellyband wrapped around the cover; an English-language brochure is loosely inserted into its pages. The brochure identifies the photographers by name, accompanied by numbers corresponding to the photos taken by each of them. The location of the memorial hall in Tiananmen Square in Beijing ensures that Mao's presence still cannot be ignored." --Martin Parr & WassinkLundgren, The Chinese Photobook: From the 1900s to the Present Day, Aperture, 2015, p.252.

Mao Tsetung: A Selection of Photographs [HUO BO], 1976

Hardback, red cloth boards with gilt-stamped title in English, 380 x 320mm, 220pp., with 200 colour plates depicting Mao Tsetung throughout his life, presented in chronological order; in original acetate jacket. Housed in cardboard slipcase, with original acetate jacket. Published by the Foreign Languages Press, Beijing.

"The purpose of this album, published two years after Mao's death, is to glorify Mao. The book reveals nothing about him that was not already known, but it reveals quite a lot about publishing and personality cults. Aside from a brief, unsigned preface, simple captions, and an index the album has no text - the photos were, after all, self-explanatory, oft-published images. Some of the most striking of them (Mao on the beach, Mao with students, and Mao inspecting the crops, for example [...]) are by Mao's official photographer, Hou Bo. Her image of Mao "on the People's beach" became the model for many statues of Mao in the years that followed. The compilation is both a visual expression of political ascendancy and one of insecurity - underscoring the need to be everywhere, never out of sight or out of mind."-- Martin Parr & WassinkLundgren, The Chinese Photobook: From the 1900s to the Present, Aperture, 2015, pp.248-251.

Revolutionary Model Operas, 1976

Hardback, green cloth boards with gilt-stamped title on upper cover and binding, floral-printed dust jacket with gilt printed title, 300 x 270mm, 154pp., 142 colour plates, Chinese language. Published by the China Photographic Publishing House Beijing, 1976.

"Revolutionary model operas were introduced by Jiang Qing, wife of Mao Zedong, during the Cultural Revolution (1966-76). In music and theme, they differed greatly from traditional Beijing, Cantonese, and other operas, and had as their purpose not merely entertainment but the promotion of revolutionary fervor, socialism, and Mao Zedong thought (Maoism)...As with many operas, from the East and West, the actions, facial expressions, and physical portrayals in the revolutionary operas were exaggerated; yet - perhaps for this very reason - they were highly entertaining and popular. This book presents a generous selection of the most memorable scenes, along with photographs of choruses and orchestras; also included are the names of the photographers, titles of scenes, and a brief preface." -- Martin Parr & WassinkLundgren, The Chinese Photobook: From the 1900s to the Present, Aperture, 2015, p.243.

Liao Chengzhi, ed., China, 1959

Rare copy of the grandest propaganda publication produced in celebration of the 10-year anniversary of the People's Republic, overseen by the Ministry of Culture. Cited as a "superbook" by Martin Parr and WassinkLundgren, it is an impressive showcase of Mao Zedong's visual propaganda machine. which continued to evolve in the lead-up to the Cultural Revolution.

Hardback with cream cloth-covered boards, blindstamped with the seal of People's Republic of China, and lettered in red characters, with blindstamped decoration to the binding, 562pp., with black and white and colour photographs throughout, 390 x 320mm. Publisher unknown.

"Edited by the 'China' editorial committee, with Liao Chengzhi at the helm, this "superbook" was created in an effort to present a grand survey of Chinese history and culture, bringing together almost 550 images, including twenty-seven photographs of ancient Chinese artifacts. This book was meticulously organized, photographed, and edited into three parts, the main one showcasing the achievements of the first decade of the People's Republic of China (PRC), and the other two dedicated to fine arts and historical artifacts. Notably, it juxtaposes paintings and photographs of Chinese developments, weaving modern and traditional, photography and fine arts, into an organic whole. The inclusion of the cultural relics legitimized the Chinese Communist Party as holders of the mandate of heaven to rule. However, the book also includes images of hardships such as floods, demonstrating the ways in which the Party could help its citizens. It is a political piece first and an art book second, for which the country's resources and photographers were harnessed to produce the best possible piece of propaganda. It lacks a marked price and did not circulate in the market. Few ordinary citizens would have ever had the chance to see this material, as it was intended for foreign heads of state and national library collections. Scheduled to be completed in time for the tenth anniversary of the PRC, planning for the book started in early 1958 and coincided with the Great Leap Forward. Liao Chengzhi, Deputy Director of the External Affairs Office of the State Council, made the final approvals of the images and was the de facto chief editor. The editorial committee was a direct initiative of the national Ministry of Culture and Xinhua News Agency. It was centrally controlled and specifically created for this publication. The executive director was Wu Wentao of Beijing Foreign Language Press, while Shi Saohua, Director of Photography of Xinhua News Agency, organized the photo shoots. Photojournalists from official newspapers such as 'Liberation Army Pictorial', 'China Pictorial', and 'Nationality Pictorial' also contributed photography and writing." -- Martin Parr & WassinkLundgren, The Chinese Photobook: From the 1900s to the Present Day, Aperture, 2015, pp.176-179.

Tape repair present on dust jacket flaps, with bumping and wear to the jacket edges and edges and binding. Beijing: Exhibition Bureau of the Ministry of Railways, 1965.

"Edited and published in 1965 by the Exhibition Bureau of the Ministry of Railways, this book is a collection of photographs of the Beijing (Peking) Railway Station, another one of the Ten Great Buildings. This 1965 edition revised and improved upon an earlier volume that was first published during the ten-year anniversary celebrations in 1959. According to the preface of this book, construction of the station began on January 20, 1959, and concluded merely seven months and twenty days later, its near miraculous efficiency a typical product of what the Great Leap Forward hoped to achieve. The present volume includes forty-eight photographs of the construction process, the various infrastructural elements of the station, and scenes of passengers boarding trains. The photographs are classically staged, with conscientious management of visual details. The text is both in Chinese and English. The front cover features Mao Zedong's calligraphic rendition of the characters Beijin zhan (Beijing Station). In many of the remaining copies, several pages at the beginning of the book have been glued together in order to hide photographs of several Party leaders who subsequently fell from favor." -- Martin Parr & WassinkLundgren, The Chinese Photobook: From the 1900s to the Present Day, Aperture, 2015, pp.186-187, cover.

Chairman Mao is the Red Sun in Our Hearts, 1967 [Uncensored]

A rare uncensored version of the 1967 visual celebration of Mao Zedong. Hardback with pictorial paper boards, 265 x 232mm, 70pp., black and white and colour photographs, Chinese Revolutionary Photography Association (ed.), Chinese language.

" In photographs made of Mao at this time, he is often accompanied by his second-in-command and designated successor, Lin Bao. Lin was a highly significant figure, but he appears only as a ghost in many of the existing copies of this book, having been painstakingly obliterated in copy after copy...Lin's fall from grace came in 1971, following an alleged attempted coup against Mao. Lin was killed in a plane crash later that year as he reportedly tried to flee China when Mao discovered his duplicity. The fact that this book had originally been published four years prior to this event points to the probability that these excisions were made by individuals who owned the book, well after its publication and distribution. During the Cultural Revolution, possession of photographs or literature depicting leaders who had fallen out of favor could be held against the owners as proof of 'rightist' or improper beliefs. -- Martin Parr & WassinkLundgren, The Chinese Photobook: From the 1900s to the Present, Aperture, 2015, pp. 218-221.

He Kongde

'Gutian Meeting'

oil on canvas

1970

signed in Chinese and dated at lower right

1200 x 1830 mm

Provenance:

Estate of Mrs. Gloria O'Hara, Vancouver, Canada; Clars Auction Gallery, Oakland CA, 3-4 May 2008. In the genre of historical propaganda paintings during the Cultural Revolution, various historical moments have been captured and subjects of great significance were depicted to showcase and portray the glorious history of the People's Army. This present painting portrays Chairman Mao giving a speech of great importance at the Gutian Conference, or the Ninth Party Congress of the Fourth Army of the Red Army of the Communist Party, in Fujian Province in 1929. With slogans on the pillars: 'Long live the Chinese Communist Party', 'Against Pure Military Point of View', '9th Regiment of 4th Division, the Red Army of Chinese Communist Party', 'Develop Socialism'. The artist painted at least three versions of this composition, one of which was featured in the 1972 Chinese National Exhibition. The finished version of Gutian Meeting by He Kongde, is at the Chinese Revolution Museum, Beijing, published in China-Oil Painting in the Twentieth Century (Guangxi Fine Arts Publishing Co., January 2001), p. 164. Another version of this work was published in The Works of He Kongde's Oil Painting (Tianjin People's Fine Arts Publishing Co., July 2003), p. 11 - with the figures of Zhu De and He Long behind Mao missing from the composition. Our painting is most likely a draft study of this latter version which adds a few more people in the background, but in ours He Kongde eliminates the figure behind Mao's arm, as in the Beijing Revolution Museum version.

Commission bids shall be executed at the lowest possible price, subject to competing bids and reserves. Although CA Ltd will endeavour to inform Buyers, it is the Buyer's responsibility to check if they have been successful in purchasing a Lot.

In the event of multiple commission bids set at the same price, the first registered commission bid will take priority.

2.4 Telephone bids

If a bidder is not able to attend in person an auction, CA Ltd will use reasonable efforts to contact prospective Buyers who make arrangements prior to commencement of the sale to bid by telephone.

CA Ltd cannot be held responsible in the event of issues affecting connectivity, resulting in the loss of a chance of purchasing the Lot for the Bidder.

2.5 Internet bids

Some sales may be available to internet bidding, as well as personal attendance. In this event, CA Ltd shall not be held responsible for issues affecting connection. In addition to having our own in-house online bidding platform, some sales are also offered with online live bidding by third party platforms, CA Ltd is not responsible for any issues that may arise during registration or utilising said platforms. Bid incrementation is at the auctioneer's entire discretion.

2.8 Video transmission

For the purpose of the sale, Lots may be displayed on video during the auction. In the event of transmission issues, CA Ltd shall not be held responsible for any subsequent outcome.

2.9 Online-only auctions

Some auctions may only be available to bidders via an online platform sale. In this event, Buyers have a 14 day period from the receipt of goods to withdraw from the sale, in accordance with EU Consumer Law. This returns policy relates only to lots where physical viewing of lots prior to sale is not offered by CA Ltd.

2.10 Dispute resolution during the auction

Any dispute shall be settled at the auctioneer's absolute discretion. Under no circumstances will a sale be cancelled after the fall of the hammer, except at the auctioneer's entire discretion.

3. CONTRACT FORMATION AND EFFECTS

3.1 Contract of sale

The contract of sale is between the Buyer and the Seller. The Buyer shall be the bidder at the highest price at the fall of the hammer. The sale is deemed complete once the auctioneer announces its completion by the fall of the hammer and the contract shall be binding thereafter between the Buyer and the Seller and CA Ltd.

When a Buyer purchases multiple Lots, each Lot is the subject of a separate contract of sale.

3.2 Transfer of property

Property of the goods shall pass to the Buyer only once CA Ltd has received full payment for the goods, this includes the price at the fall of the hammer as well as Buyer's premium, relevant taxes, and costs in relation to shipping.

Purchased Lots shall be at the Buyer's risk in all respects from the fall of the hammer, and neither CA Ltd nor their agents shall be responsible for any loss or damage of any kind, whether caused by negligence or otherwise.

Cash payments shall not be receivable for amounts over €10,000, regardless of the payment being for one or multiple Lots. As of 2020, new directives also extend to other forms of payment where the amount is in excess of €10,000 and this may require further information sharing covering both buyers and sellers.

Droit de Suite is a royalty payable to a qualifying artist or to the artist's heir each time a work is resold during the artist's lifetime and up to a period of 70 years after the artist's death. - To exercise a lien over the Buyer's property in the possession of CA Ltd as collateral for any outstanding sums owed and to exercise all the rights and remedies of a person holding security over any such property, whether by way of pledge, security interest or in any other way to the extent permitted by Law.

- To commence legal proceedings for the recovery of the total amount due together with interest, legal fees and costs.
- To take such other action as is permissible by Law and in the discretion of CA Ltd.

4.7 Collection

Purchased Lots can be collected from the auction room after the sale has ended or between 10am and 6pm up until close of business on the Friday following the sale. Special arrangements may be made for collection on Saturday at CA Ltd's discretion. Any delay in collection must be communicated clearly to CA Ltd in advance of the collection deadline and CA Ltd reserves the right to impose charges thereafter at its utter discretion (see 4.7).

4.10 Loss or Damage

CA Ltd does not accept liability for loss or damage occurring to Lots after the sale. CA Ltd will use reasonable efforts when handling Lots, but shall not be responsible for any loss or damages that may occur whilst the said Lot is in any third party's care.

4.11 Cultural Goods import and export restrictions

Cultural goods may be subject to import and export restrictions. Under EU Regulations related to the trade of cultural goods, export licences may be required for export outside of the European Union if the item's value exceeds the EU threshold. Under UK Law, a licence may also be required for intra-EU trade.

Licenses are issued by Arts Council England and it is the Buyer's duty to obtain them. Some countries restrict the import of specific cultural goods. For example, the United States prohibits the import of pre-Columbian monumental or architectural sculpture or murals, as well as any cultural goods in provenance from some countries subject to armed conflicts.

The Buyer must verify local legislation prior to the sale in order to be assured that import or export is possible.

4.12 CITES

Import and export restrictions

Certain endangered species are listed in the CITES Convention. Listed specimens and any parts or products thereof are subject to issuance of an export permit when leaving the European Union.

Appendix I species, are also subject to issuance of a prior import permit from the country in which the goods are to be imported. Such permits are necessary before applying for export permits and it is the Buyer's duty to initiate the proceedings with the relevant authority. The Buyer must be aware that certain countries prohibit the import of some species or any parts or products derived thereof. For example, the United States prohibit all import of African elephant ivory, and any item containing parts that may merely resemble African elephant ivory must be accompanied by relevant documentation stating it is not the latter.

Worked items that are dated before 1947 are exempt from import restrictions for intra-EU trade and shall not require export licences. Please be aware that all Lots marked with the symbol λ are subject to CITES regulations.

4.13 Limitation of liability regarding CITES export licenses

Where licences are required for importing or exporting outside of the European Union, it is the Buyer's duty to obtain them. CA Ltd cannot be held responsible if the Buyer's application for an export permit is unsuccessful. Subsequently, in the event of failure thereof, CA Ltd shall not permit cancellation or rescission of the sale.

4.14 Warranties

CA Ltd does not provide the Buyer with warranties relating to any Lot, unless required by Law.

4.15 Authenticity warranty

In the event of a Lot being sold as authentic under the catalogue description and the Buyer provides evidence in the form of a written report by a recognised expert or test results that the said Lot is not authentic, CA Ltd will refund the purchase price.

The Buyer shall give notice to CA Ltd within 28 days from knowledge or any event giving reasons for suspecting that the item is not authentic, and within one year of the said sale. Any claim thereafter shall not be receivable. For the purposes of the present paragraph, authenticity shall be defined as the state of a Lot that is genuine and not a forgery or a copy.

5. ANTIQUITIES AND TRIBAL ART

5.1 Import and export restrictions and regulations

Archaeological goods over 100 years of age, unless covered by exemption of limited scientific interest, will require an EU Licence for export to a third country, regardless of their value.

It is recommended that the Buyer contact the Export Licensing Unit at Arts Council England in order to be assured the good is or not of limited archaeological or scientific interest.

Archaeological goods found on United-Kingdom soil or in UK territorial waters over 50 years of age shall require a UK Licence regardless of their value and regardless of the export destination. Other archaeological objects regardless of their origin will require an Individual Licence or OGEL depending on their value.

Both European-Union and UK Licences may be required simultaneously for some items. It is the Buyer's duty to undertake the necessary steps. CA Ltd cannot be held responsible and the sale cannot be cancelled in the event of failure to obtain the relevant licences.

6. JEWELLERY

6.1 Gemstone treatment and estimates

Many gemstones on the market have been treated so as to augment their appearance, in a reversible or permanent manner. Treatments under the present section may be but not limited to:

- Heat treatment to enhance sapphires and rubies' clarity and colour
- Oil and resin treatments for emeralds applied in different ways, to enhance clarity of the stone
- Staining
- Irradiation
- Coating

Estimates provided by CA Ltd are deemed to be based on the fact that the gemstone may have been subject to any type of treatment in the past. CA Ltd shall not be responsible in the absence of mention thereof.

A certificate may be issued by a laboratory, providing with detailed information on the condition of the gemstone and any treatment applied thereto. The Buyer must be aware that different laboratories have different approaches as to the degree or type of treatment for a particular gemstone.

If a certificate accompanies the Lot, the Buyer must be aware that it is merely a statement of the laboratory's opinion and in no way can CA Ltd be held responsible for any mentions therein. Such certificates are deemed to be delivered with the Lot for informative purposes only.

6.2 Estimated weights

If a stone's exact weight appears within the body of the description, the stone has been un-mounted and weighed by CA Ltd. If the weight of a stone is stated to be approximate, the stone has been assessed by CA Ltd within its setting, and the defined weight is a statement of opinion only. This information is given as a guide and bidders should satisfy themselves with regard to this information as to its accuracy.

6.3 Signatures

'A diamond ring, by X': When the maker's name appears in the title, in Chiswick Auctions' opinion the piece is by that maker.

'A diamond ring, signed X': Has a signature that, in Chiswick Auctions' opinion, is authentic but may contain gemstones that are not original, or the piece may have been altered.

'A diamond ring, mounted by X': Has been created by the jeweller, in Chiswick Auctions' opinion, but using stones or designs supplied by the client.

'Maker's mark for X': Has a maker's mark which in Chiswick Auctions' opinion is authentic.

Some items may include parts or products derived from endangered species, such as ivory or coral. Such items may be subject to import or export restrictions. See section on CITES regulations for more details.

7. CLOCKS AND WATCHES

All Lots are sold as seen. Clocks and watches are therefore not deemed to be sold in working condition. Absence of reference thereof in the description does not imply that the Lot is in good condition and without defects, or has been subject to repair or restoration.

CA Ltd makes no representation or warranty that any clock or watch is in working order. As clocks and watches often contain fine and complex mechanisms, bidders should be aware that a general service, change of battery or further repair work, for which the Buyer is solely responsible, may be necessary.

Most clocks and watches are likely to have been repaired in the past, and as a result may include parts that are not original thereto.

The United-States restrict the importation of watches such as Rolex, Frank Muller or Corum. Such models can only be imported personally by the Buyer and CA Ltd cannot assist with shipping thereof.

Some watches may include leather straps derived from endangered species. Buyers may be required to obtain appropriate permits for import or export purposes in accordance with CITES regulations.

CA Ltd acts in compliance with such legislations and shall take necessary steps where required. Subsequently, watches may be deemed sold without their straps.

8. FURNITURE

8.1 Upholstered furniture after 1950

According to The Furniture and Furnishings (Fire Safety) Regulations 1988, furniture that was upholstered after the 1st of January 1950 is subject to restrictions in the United-Kingdom.

Exempt upholstered furniture that does not meet such requirements is deemed sold for purely aesthetic purposes. CA Ltd shall not be responsible for later alterations to the furniture, making it unfit for sale.

When dealing with Asian Arts and more specifically with items made of exotic wood (e.g. all species of rosewood) or elephant ivory, the Buyer must be aware of import and export restrictions in accordance with CITES Regulations. As aforementioned in the Section relating to such matters, import and export permits or re-export certificates may be required. Verification letters will be required for re-export of worked Rhinoceros items.

10.2 Fine Chinese Paintings

Current scholarship in the field of Chinese Paintings and Calligraphy does not permit unqualified statements as to the authorship or date of execution. The limited right of rescission contained in the present terms and conditions does not apply to Chinese paintings.

Notwithstanding, if within 28 days of the sale of any such Lot, the original purchaser gives written notice to CA Ltd that the Lot is a forgery and within fourteen days after giving such notice, the original purchaser returns the lot to us in the same condition as at the time of sale and demonstrates to our satisfaction that the lot is a forgery, CA Ltd will rescind the sale and refund the purchase price received. For this purpose, a 'forgery' is defined as a work created with the intent to deceive.

11. BOOKS AND MANUSCRIPTS

Books and manuscripts sold as incomplete are not subject to returns. Printed books may be returned for a full refund only if they prove to be defective in text or illustration. This shall not apply to the absence of blanks, half titles or advertisements, to un-named books or to books sold under the heading of 'binding' or 'bindings'.

12. WINES AND SPIRITS

In accordance with agreed standards in the trade, estimates shall be deemed to have taken into account the fill level.

For the purposes of the present Terms and Conditions, the 'Fill Level' refers to the space between the base of the cork and the liquid in the bottle. Fill levels may vary with age or depending on the condition of the wine or spirit.

Lack of mention thereof in the description is not a representation of an 'acceptable' fill level from CA Ltd.

CA Ltd offers no guarantee as to suitability for drinking of the wine or spirit. The Buyer must be aware of the risk that the taste of a wine or spirit may be altered due to factors such as age, storage conditions, oxidation, etc.

13. COPYRIGHT

Some Lots may be subject to copyright protection, CA Ltd does not guarantee said Lots are free thereof.

14. DATA PROTECTION

The Buyer agrees that personal information transmitted to CA Ltd may be disclosed exclusively for the purposes of business, or as required by Law. CA Ltd shall not use personal information for any other purpose without the Buyer's prior consent.

CA Ltd never sell, lend or trade in personal data provided by any Bidder.

15. SEVERABILITY
